

Would you like to donate?

Submissions of data and materials for the San Francisco Genealogy web site are always appreciated. We welcome any genealogical and historical material relating to San Francisco such as:

- Transcriptions of vital records, particularly birth, marriage and death notices from historic San Francisco newspapers.
- Transcriptions of historic San Francisco records such as census, tax lists, city directories, voter registration, etc.
- Old school yearbooks and commencement lists, photographs, directories, books, etc.

Volunteers willing to help other researchers by doing look-ups, or by transcribing materials for the web site are always welcome.

Other web sites hosted by SFgenealogy:

San Francisco History

<http://www.sfgenealogy.com/sf/history>

San Mateo County Genealogy

<http://www.sfgenealogy.com/sanmateo>

Santa Clara County Genealogy

<http://www.sfgenealogy.com/santaclara>

Santa Cruz County Genealogy

<http://www.sfgenealogy.com/santacruz>

Marin County Genealogy

<http://www.sfgenealogy.com/marin>

California Spanish Genealogy

<http://www.sfgenealogy.com/spanish>

California Bound

<http://www.sfgenealogy.com/californiabound>

YOUR HOSTS

Pamela Storm

pam@sfgenealogy.com

Ron Filion

ron@sfgenealogy.com

© Copyright 2009 (March)
All rights reserved.

Permission granted to copy and distribute this flyer

San Francisco Genealogy

<http://www.sfgenealogy.com/sf>

FREE INTERNET RESOURCE

for

San Francisco
Genealogy and History

SFgenealogy

Welcome to San Francisco Genealogy

<http://www.sfgenealogy.com>

The San Francisco Genealogy web site was established in 1996. Since that time, we've had millions of visits.

The primary purpose and highest priority of San Francisco Genealogy is to provide FREE internet access to the genealogical and historical information of San Francisco.

There is a tremendous amount of information regarding records and resources that are available to you about your San Francisco ancestors.

This web site is the result of data, research tips, transcriptions of historic documents submitted by hundreds of different contributors and volunteers.

We hope you'll find the San Francisco Genealogy web site useful in your search for your San Francisco ancestors. Good luck with your research, and have fun!

The San Francisco Genealogy web site currently offers:

- ★ Thousands of web pages full of data and information on San Franciscans, and lots of help on how to research more of their records on your own
- ★ Thousands of birth, marriage, and death notice transcriptions from historic San Francisco newspapers
- ★ Various San Francisco City and Telephone Directories from 1846 to 1906
- ★ San Francisco school graduation and senior class lists dating from 1859
- ★ 1905-1995 San Francisco Birth Index
- ★ 1848-1863 Cemetery Index
- ★ 1856-1862 Divorce Lists
- ★ 1900 Sanborn Fire Insurance Maps
- ★ 1867 Great Register (Voters)
- ★ Historic Club Membership lists
- ★ Complete transcriptions of several significant books on San Francisco history

- ★ Site-wide search engine
- ★ Volunteers who offer their time doing free look-ups for researchers
- ★ A companion e-mail discussion list which has hundreds of subscribers who discuss San Francisco genealogy and history
- ★ "Hands on" Research Tips from other researchers experienced with local facilities and their records
- ★ Links to:

San Francisco Databases
San Francisco Research Facilities
San Francisco Area Cemeteries
San Francisco History web sites
Online Vital Records indices
Historic Photographs and Maps
Passenger Lists
Census Records
Tax Lists
Mortuary Records
Immigration Records
Fraternal/Social Organizations
San Francisco Earthquake records
Online "genealogy tools"

...and much more!

