

Feb. 28. Thomas Maguire charged with violating the Civil Rights bill.

Feb. 29. Fifty Chinamen attack a Chinese mercantile house, wounding seven men... W. J. Taylor on trial for murder of "Doc." O'Neill, gambler.

March 1. Cambrian Aid Society celebrate St. David's day.

March 2. Discovery of a hoodlum society organization. ... Notable decline in silver.

March 3. W. J. Taylor, murderer of Dr. O'Neill, gambler, found guilty of murder second degree... Second annual meeting Photographic Art Society.

March 4. H. Beckhausen, German, suicided by poison. ... Mrs. Bertha Lucassen suicided by poison.

March 6. Twenty-seventh anniversary of arrival of ship Thomas H. Perkins celebrated... Henry Guyon, boy, falls from a house and is killed.

March 7. A. A. Cohen institutes suit in Twelfth District Court against Central P. R. R. for $106,306... Sophie Edwin, a much esteemed lady and a pioneer actress, lies.

March 8. Clearing-house commences business.

March 10. Editors Evening Post arraigned for contempt for an alleged libel of Rev. Dr. Dawson.

March 13. Property-holders favor the tunnelling of Russian Hill.

March 15. Frederick Post, Henry Barclay, and Isaac Bivens, boys, drowned.

March 17. Grand military and civic display in honor of St. Patrick's day... John Burns, seaman, suicided.

March 18. Judge Sawyer, United States Circuit Court, granted an injunction in favor of Henry G. Langley prohibiting Bishop & Co. from issuing their new City Directory.

March 20. Michael Plennis dies from accidental wounds while gunning.

March 21. Organization of the Mite Benevolent Society... Mariners' Free Reading Room opened.

March 22. Special committee of twelve citizens meet to investigate the Chinese question... J. T. Babcox, owner in the mint, charged with embezzling $25,000.

March 26. Thomas J. Thompson & Co., "put and call" stock operators, fail; liabilities $40,000... The Chinese question discussed at the Pavilion by prominent citizens.

March 25. Charles W. Barth, transportation clerk, quartermaster's office, absconds with $50,000.

March 29. Odd Fellows' anniversary celebration... Samuel McKee & Co., stockbrokers, suspended.

March 30. Childs & Maguire, stockbrokers, suspended... Chinese become alarmed at the popular anti-Chinese feeling. The Six Companies issue a manifesto to the American people.

April 1. Body of Frederick Senler, accidentally drowned, found in the bay... Body of Thomas Moshell found in the bay.

April 2. Edward J. Lawrence, suicided by strychnine.

April 3. The six Chinese companies ask the Board of Supervisors for protection... Third annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society.

April 5. Mass meeting held at Union Hall on the Chinese question; resolutions adopted asking for the repeal of the Burlingame Treaty; the Chinese throughout the city much alarmed... Alonzo Dahlman suicided by shooting himself... Frank W. Louthan, a stock broker, suicided by throwing himself under a locomotive... Retail cigar dealers advance ten per cent... Michael Schell dies in the City Prison from wounds inflicted by John McCarthy.

April 6. Einstein & Co., boot and shoe manufacturers, charge about three hundred Chinese... C. H. Haragton tried for attempted assassination and robbery of Charles Ludlum.

April 7. Newton Morgan, poll-tax forger, acquitted.

April 9. Arrest of Charles B. Wilkinson, a revenue faultier for $12,000... Jewish feast of the Passover... Palm Sunday... Body of Samuel R. Johnson found in the bay.

April 11. Twenty-second grand convocation of the Grand Chapter Royal Arch Masons... Louis Losse, wife murderer, convicted of murder in the second degree for killing his wife... Senatorial Chinese Investigating Committee meet.

April 12. John S. Manson, an old Californian and resident of this city, dies near San José.

April 14. Capt. W. C. Hineckley, an old and much-respected citizen, dies and bequeaths $150,000 for charitable purposes... Louis Losse sentenced to forty-five years' imprisonment for murdering his wife... Good Friday.

April 16. Easter Sunday—Impressive church services throughout the city... Riotous attack on the Chinese passengers by the Crocus prevented.

April 17. Watchman Dunn kills a Chinaman... Disturbance in Western Addition.

April 18. James H. Groves accidentally shot by H. J. Burns, during a target practice.

April 19. Sixth annual meeting of the California Medical Society; ladies' admitted to membership.

April 21. New City Hall Commissioners organized... Chinese test the constitutionality of laundry license tax.

April 22. Patrick Owens suicided by laudanum.

April 24. James Edward Ryan arraigned for attempting to murder Police Officer Brown.

April 25. Captain Ignatius Percy dies... Dom Pedro, Brazilian Emperor, arrives... Patrick Owens suicided... John McDevitt killed by Edward Farrell.

April 26. Annual meeting California Rifle Association... Odd Fellows celebrate 57th Anniversary... John O. Sullivan, hoy, accidentally drowned.

April 27. The corner stone of the new building for the San Francisco Stock and Exchange Board laid with appropriate services... B. F. Blakeley suicided by poison.

April 28. Charles Marsh a pioneer and an old resident of Nevada County, and a prominent member of the Masonic Fraternity, dies... Miss Julia Sichel suicided by poison... Joseph Bracy, boy, scalded to death in a pot of boiling tallow.

April 29. Past Grand Master Charles Marsh buried with appropriate services.

April 30. John D. Lindeman, suicided by laudanum.

May 1. Seizure of the Bay View Distillery, and the wholesale liquor houses of I. Lipman & Co., and Kane, O'Leary & Co., for violation of the Internal Revenue laws.

May 2. Henry Tremblay, stockbroker, suicided by shooting... Judge S. B. McKee decides the Chinese laundry tax illegal.

May 3. Ellen Loudain tried for killing Diedrick Lanekman, acquitted.

May 4. Meeting new Board California Rifle Association... Episcopal Diocesan Convention... Frederick W. Lucas suicided by poison... Twenty-second Grand Encampment I. O. O. F.

May 8. Miss Caroline Chapman, an actress, and one of the Chapman Family, dies.

May 9. Twenty-fourth session of the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F... O. Dickinson, Jr., an old and esteemed merchant, dies.

May 10. Organization British Mutual Benefit Society... Poultry and game dealers form a Protective Association.

May 12. Dr. Moreno sentenced to $1,000 fine, or imprisonment of 1,000 days, for wife-whipping; first conviction under the new law... Attorney-General of the State enjoins the Pacific Homeopathic Society from issuing diplomas... The Board of Health examines into the affairs of the Alms House.

May 13. Mrs. Babetta May suicides.

May 15. Willie Congleton Perkins killed by Harry D. Connor... Eighteenth Anniversary Scheutzen Verein... Dedication of the new building of the Pacific Stock Exchange... A part of Telegraph Hill donated to the city, for the purposes of a public park.

May 18. Felix Mulgrew, of Healdsburg, drowned in the Bay... Dairymen's Association organized.

May 19. R. W. Neal shoots at Morton Cheeseman and W. Talbot.

May 21. Three cases of small-pox discovered... Maxey B. Page accidentally kills himself... Chinese test legality of the cubic air ordinance.

May 22. James Edward Ryan sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000, for shooting officer Brown in 1873.

May 23. Samuel Purdy, ex-Lieut.-Governor, elected City Hall Superintendent.

May 24. Democratic State Convention meets at Union Hall... Charles H. Bolan, E. L. Smith, and Frank Higgins drowned, by the capsizing of a boat.

May 25. Fire in Brittan Building, cor California and Davis streets; loss $250,000.

May 27. Robert Sherwood sues E. Cahill for libel, damages $100,000... Board of Supervisors investigate charges of collusion with gamblers against N. F. Flood, Prosecuting Attorney.

May 28. Postmaster Coey divides the City into four Postal divisions, with branch post offices... Ceremonies of the Jewish Feast of the Pentecost.

May 29. Colored man refused license to marry a

The Type on which this Work is Printed was cast by Miller & Richard, Edinburgh. Agency, 529 Commercial Street.